52nd National Show Dedicatee Larry Ludeke

Tucked away south of the historic Houston Astrodome in the small town of Liverpool, Texas, you will find Bar J Charolais, owned and operated by Larry and Beth Ludeke.

Larry Ludeke's enthusiasm for the Charolais breed began when his local FFA chapter visited the 1966 San Antonio Livestock Show Calf Scramble. After earning a $200 Calf Scramble certificate, he purchased his first Charolais bull.

Fast forward to 2001, Larry and his wife Beth, closed on their ranch near Liverpool, Texas, today known as Bar J Charolais. In the spring of 2002 Larry selected a package of 20 females from Robert and Modena Jernigan in east Texas – pioneer Charolais breeders and sale manager.

That same year, Larry attended the Houston Livestock Show confirming that livestock shows presented a great opportunity to add visibility to his Charolais program. In 2003, Bar J exhibited two heifers at the Houston Livestock Show.

Since the beginning, Bar J Charolais has campaigned seed stock genetics at major shows across the country. Success includes qualifying 5 herd bulls as Roll of Excellence Sires; 4 AICA Show Bulls of the year; and numerous AICA Show Bull, Female, Dam and Sire Top 10 placings.

Today at Bar J Charolais Larry has built up his local commercial bull market, where he sells the majority his bulls through private treaty and enjoys having customers come out to the farm and look through his cattle. He hopes by sharing his passion for the breed he can create an interest in others for the Charolais breed.

Larry's key selection traits for bulls includes being sound at the ground, having the ability to travel as well as low birth weights. Charolais bulls offer so much in terms of heterosis and vigor, the rest will fall into place, he said.

Larry said he couldn't think of another animal as a herd bull that would do more for any kind of cow.

Bar J also has taken advantage of their southern geographical location exploring international trade options with bull buyers from Mexico, where they typically sell three or four shipments each year.

Besides the breeding and seed stock side of Bar J Charolais, the Ludeke's also own and operate their meat store Bar J Artisan Meats, LLC., in Houston, Texas, where they market and sell Wagyu x Charolais meat.

Larry has been active in leading AICA serving on the Board of Directors and being both Vice President and President of the board. Currently he is the President of the ACF Board of Directors and Chairman of the AICA Finance Committee.

Larry along with partners, JVS Cattle Company have actively supported ACF donating the Foundation Heifer for the 39th National Sale (she finished #5 Show Female of the Year), purchasing the 41st National Sale Foundation Female and again donating the the Foundation Heifer for the 42nd National Sale.
