SHOW DEDICATEE

DENNIS ADAMS

by: Cagney Effling, Highmore, S.D.

He starts his story with “once upon a time” and follows with a chuckle, but rest assured his story has been close to a fairytale. This year’s 2019 Show Dedicatee, Dennis Adams’ involvement within the Charolais breed is one that dates back even before his time.

Dennis says the story begins with his grandparents, who were homesteaders in New Mexico in the year of 1905. From then, it would be 57 years later that the Adams family would obtain their first Charolais. The last commanding officer of the ground Calvary, or better known as a friend of the family, introduced Charolais into the New Mexico man’s life. This General in the Army had been to all the Texas majors and spoke highly of the Charolais breed; it was not long after that that same friend brought four Charolais cross heifers to New Mexico when he retired from the service. Dennis recalls that they were so impressed with them that they went back to the same place in Texas for the next two years and bought heifers to start their FFA projects. He gives credit to these females being the reason that he became so involved within FFA. It was these heifers that became the foundation and driving reason Dennis would receive his American Farmer Degree and become a State FFA Officer. The family’s first purebred cattle would come from Mack Braly in Oklahoma.

Dennis says that they started showing at a few shows, but had not yet dived in. It was at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, Texas when Dennis had his first taste of success; grabbing Grand Champion Bull honors. Dennis credits much of his early success to Ted Kelley of Texas, Lyle Miller of Iowa and the Bauman Family of Wyoming. “I really learned to appreciate the cattle and what it takes to be successful with them.”

It is when Dennis starts talking about his daughters’ show careers that he gets truly excited. His daughter, Sharla, accomplished an incredible milestone, being granted with two Grand Champion Females and one Reserve Champion at the Junior National throughout her junior career; also having the honor as serving as the President for the AIJCA Junior Board. The most memorable show that Dennis recalls is a Junior National in South Dakota when his daughters showed against one another in the champion drive with two home-raised heifers. He was soon able to put down a tally for one of Sharla’s Grand Champion Females at the Junior National. One year, the family even exhibited the Grand Champion Bull and Female at the National Western Stock Show. Dennis also beams with pride when he mentions that both Sharla and himself were selected as Herdsman of the Year. The girls’ show careers within the state of Texas were second to none. Exhibiting the Grand Champion Steer at Ft. Worth, San Antonio, and Houston would lead Carrie to picking up a hog whip instead of a show stick. In this ring, she would have a Grand Champion Barrow at Ft. Worth and a Grand and Reserve at Louisville.

Dennis and his family sold many of their bulls in New Mexico and credits this with being a “good base for the program.” Dennis made the decision to lease his cows to the CJ Ranch, owned by Charlie and Jean Smith, for three years. Not long after, he started a bull sale, and this is where his sale management experience started. Buzz Garey did a female sale for Dennis one year in New Mexico, and it was what Dennis learned from Buzz that led to a female show and futurity surfacing at the CJ Ranch. Dennis recalls the horrible droughts in New Mexico, so they made the move to Texas. 1991 would be the first year he started managing sales. Outfront Cattle Service is the name of Dennis’ sale management business today.

With pride, Dennis shares that his entire family is still heavily involved within the livestock industry. His daughter, Sharla Ishmael, is the managing editor for the Show Circuit and her husband, Wes is a writer for both BEEF Magazine and Cattle Today. Wes and Sharla have two kids, Josie and Brooks. It is with pride that Dennis speaks about Josie’s basketball career and her future in the sport. Adams’ other daughter, Carrie and her husband, Josh Brockman, own and operate Brockman Farms and are finding much success, including the Grand Champion Barrow at Houston in 2017. Carrie’s kids, Kaden and Kam are just getting started in the show ring, but Kaden’s first year treated him well, exhibiting the Grand Champion Market Barrow at San Antonio.

Dennis advocates for the Charolais breed as well as youth within his career and personal life. He covers the country managing sales from Georgia to Montana and Virginia to Texas. He will be the first to tell you that he met a lot of great people and developed lifelong friends across the country. Dennis cannot stress enough to juniors the importance of participation. Participation leads to friendships, and it is those friendships that will stick with you in both your personal and business life.

“Go out and challenge yourself to do the best job you can, because you never want to look back and say, ‘If only I had tried a little harder!’ Let your parents know you appreciate them and acknowledge those that have helped you along the way.”
